8 Anyone who obtains benefits for him/herself or another person to which they are not entitled from the employee benefits institution or the security fund by providing untrue or incomplete information will be subject to punishment (art. 76 of the Federal Law on Occupational Retirement, Survivors' and Disability Pension Plans, BVG).

9 The person to be insured must provide information on his/her health. The GastroSocial Pension Fund can also instruct the applicant to go for a medical check-up with a doctor appointed by the Pension Fund. If there is a higher risk, the GastroSocial Pension Fund can apply one or more provisos for insurance cover or reject the applicant's enrolment with the supplementary insurance scheme. Self-employed individuals with a higher health risk are not enrolled with the insurance scheme. A proviso or exclusion can also be applied subsequently if the person to be insured has provided incorrect information or failed to inform the Pension Fund of a considerable risk of which he/she was or should have been aware. Provisos only apply to the extra-mandatory insurance. The person to be insured will be informed in writing of the reason for and duration of a proviso. A proviso can be applied for a maximum of 5 years.

I confirm that I have answered questions 1 to 7 truthfully and have taken note of sections 8 and 9.
